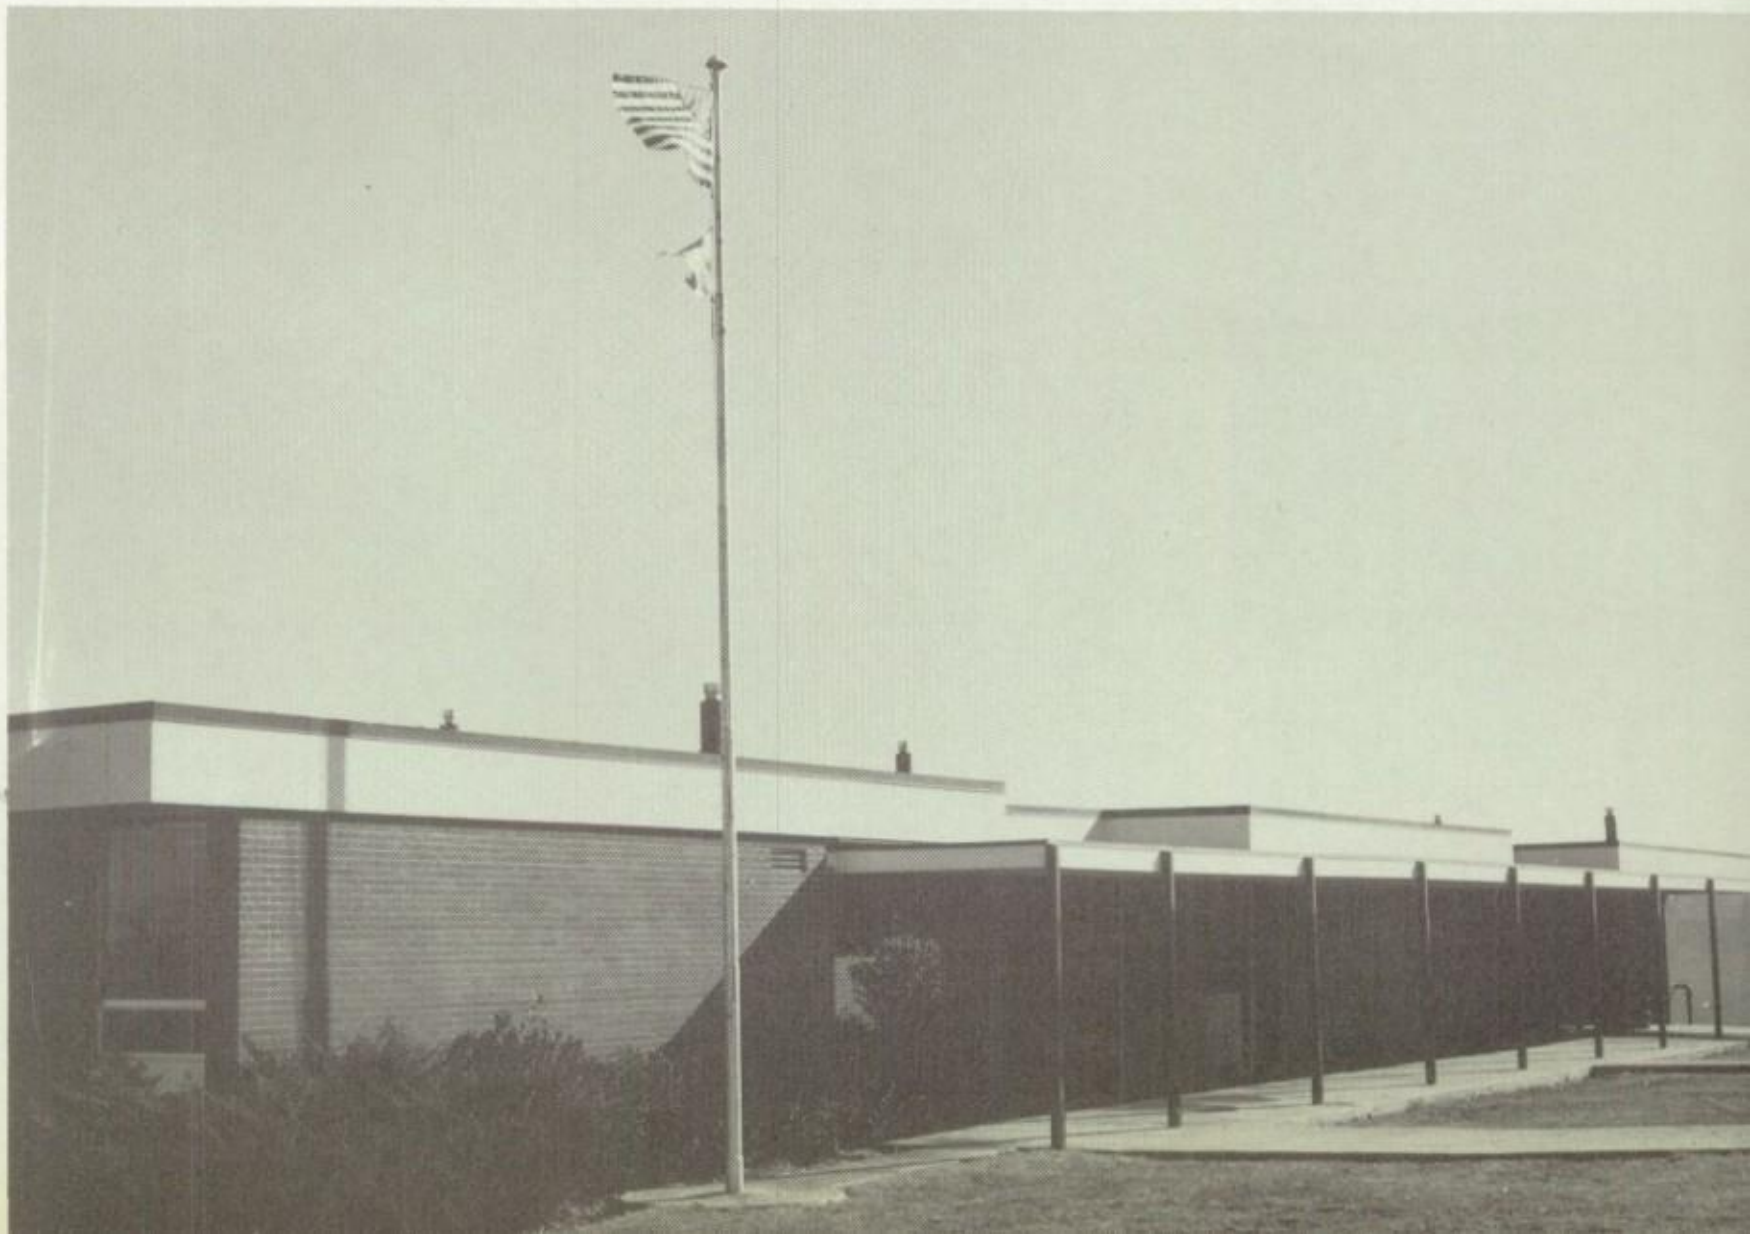
CRISIS Creates Challenge

Elgin students begin their academic careers in the grade school and continue their education in the high school. This year, after changing to Daylight Savings Time, students came to school as the sun began to rise and ended the day with the sun shining brightly.



DEDICATION

Dear Parents:

Forgot to empty the garbage,
Never cleaned my room,
Monopolized the telephone,
Filled the house with gloom,
Sometimes stayed out late at night,
Played my records way too loud,
Complained about the cooking,
Got in with a rebel crowd.
And yet you kept on loving me
No matter what I did.
Thanks for being patient
And calling me your kid.

MOTHER

I search among the plain and lovely words
To find what the one word "Mother" means;
as well
Try to define the tangled song of birds;
The echo in the hills of one clear bell.
One cannot snare the wind, or catch the wings
Of shadows flying low across the wheat;
Ah, who can prison simple, natural things
That make the long days beautiful and sweet?
"Mother"--a word that holds the tender spell
Of all the dear essential things of earth;
A home, clean sunlit rooms, and the good smell
Of bread, a table spread; a glowing hearth.
And love beyond the dream of anyone . . .
I search for words for her . . . and there are none.

THE FAMILY

The family is like a book--
The children are the leaves;
The parents are the covers
That protecting beauty gives.

At first the pages of the book
Are blank and purely fair,
But time soon writeth memories
And painteth pictures there.

Love is the little golden clasp
That bindeth up the trust.
Oh! break it not, lest all the leaves
Should scatter and be lost.

WHAT IS A FATHER?

A father is wise,
understanding and kind,
He seems to know always just what's on your mind
He's willing to listen,
suggest and defend,
Someone to look up to,
a pal and a friend.
A father is patient,
forgiving mistakes,
Generous, too, with the money
he makes;
Reassuring and strong with a pat on the shoulder,
Or a word of advice as his children grow older.
A father's a wonderful,
great sort of guy . . .
I know, because just such a father have I.

Mr. C. B. Oliver, President; Mr. Homer Hise, Member; Mr. Guy Shull, Clerk; Mr. Hank Leonard, Member: (Inset) Mr. Earnest King, Vice-President.

Board Keeps Pace with Expansion

We sincerely thank the members of the Elgin School Board of Education for the leadership and guidance we need in developing and leading our community.

We know how difficult it is to keep our school in good condition during the energy crisis and we want to extend our thanks for making it possible for us to have these facilities while attending school.

Leonard Resigns

Mr. Harry Leonard has contributed much to the Elgin community by setting up and organizing different activities from which the whole community benefits. Appointed by Governor David Hall as State Banking Commissioner this past year, Mr. Leonard resigned from the school board at Elgin.

As State Banking Commissioner, Mr. Leonard has many responsibilities which affect all of Oklahoma. He regulates and administrates banking activities with regard to the Oklahoma State Banking Code and also examines state chartered banks. Mr. Leonard will hold this position for four years and for another term is so appointed.

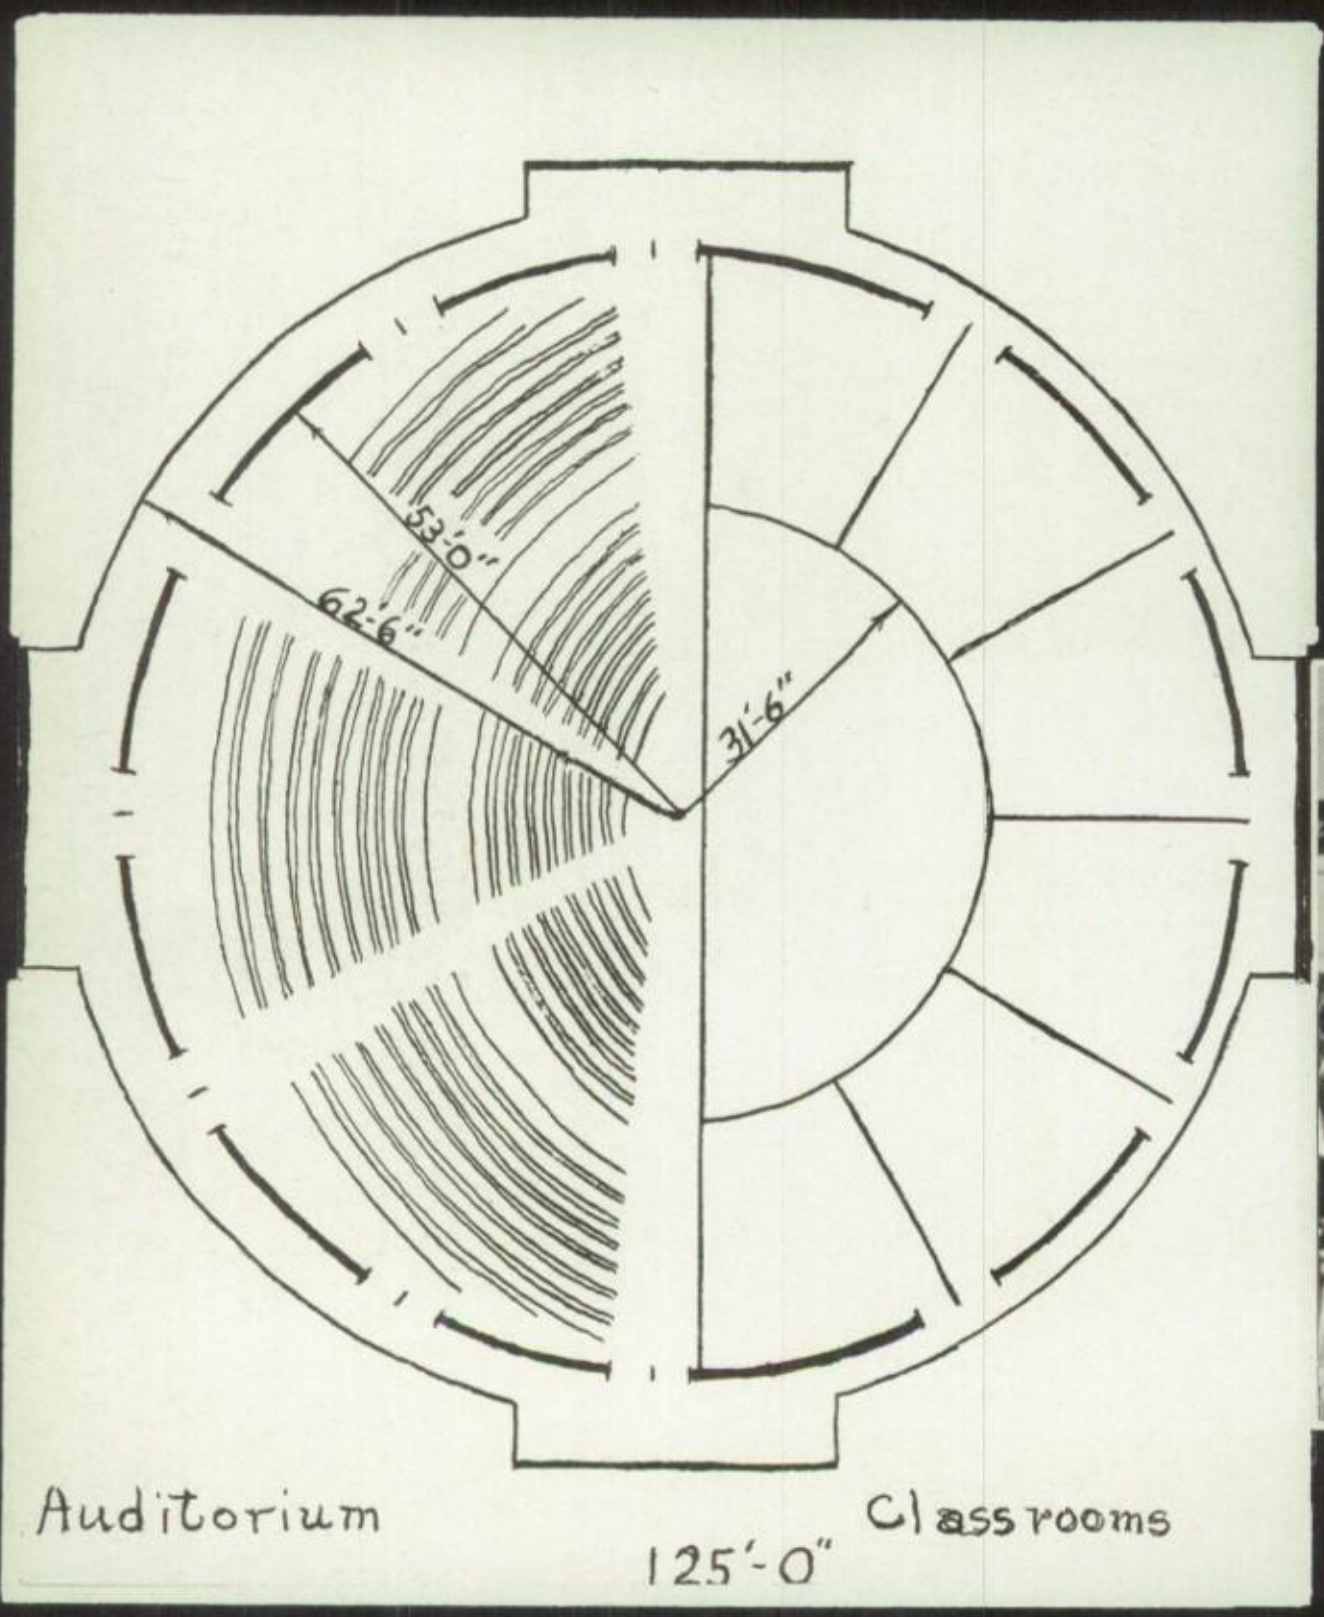
Mr. Leonard had served on the Elgin School Board for nine years until his resignation in November of 1973. Other positions he has held are: president of the Lions Club, city treasurer, and president of the Oklahoma Bankers Association.

His family plays an important part in his life. He and his wife, Carlene, have two sons, hank and Mike, and two grandchildren.

Through his continual efforts, Mr. Leonard has made Elgin a better place in which to work and to live. The annual staff says, "Thank you for the contributions you have made in our community."

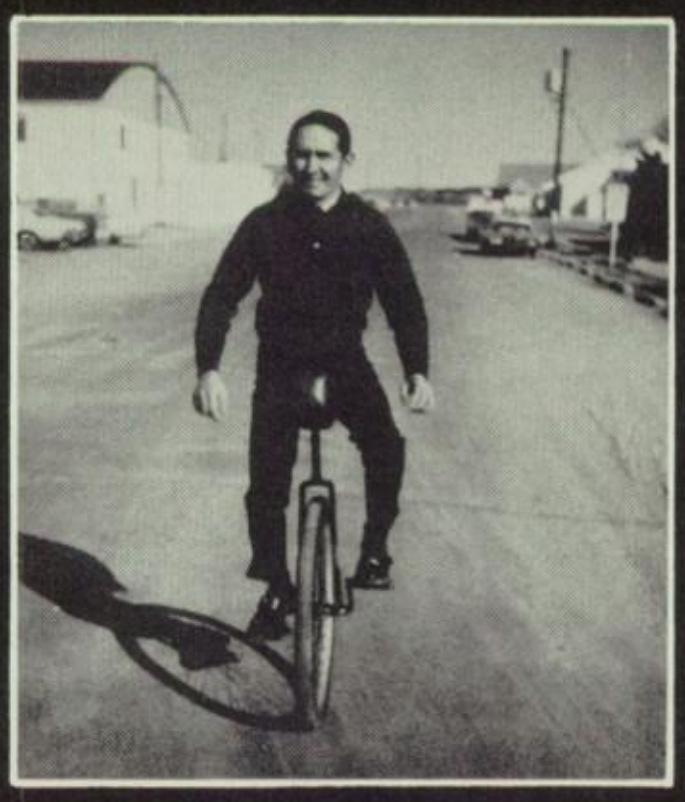
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leonard

Harry Leonard confers with Senator Bellmon, Representative Steed, and Senator Bartlett about mutual problems in Oklahoma.



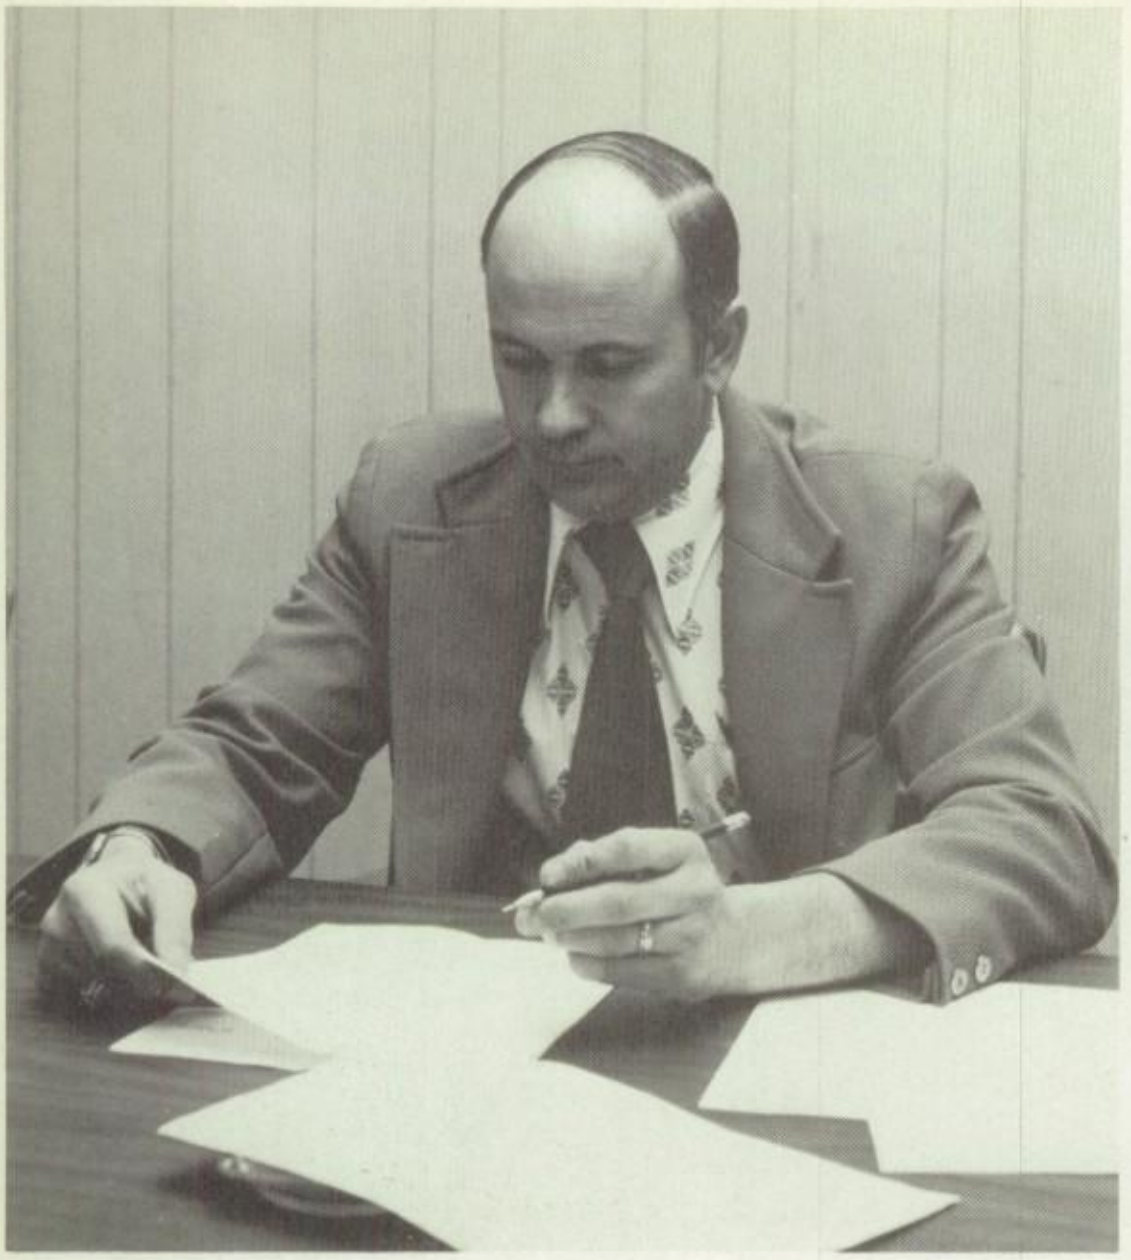
MOMENTS

OF DECISIONS



The administration . . . the backbone of our school. They endeavor to guide the students at Elgin, not dominate them, Stressing responsibility and maturity, they strive to instill in each of us confidence in our self-image.

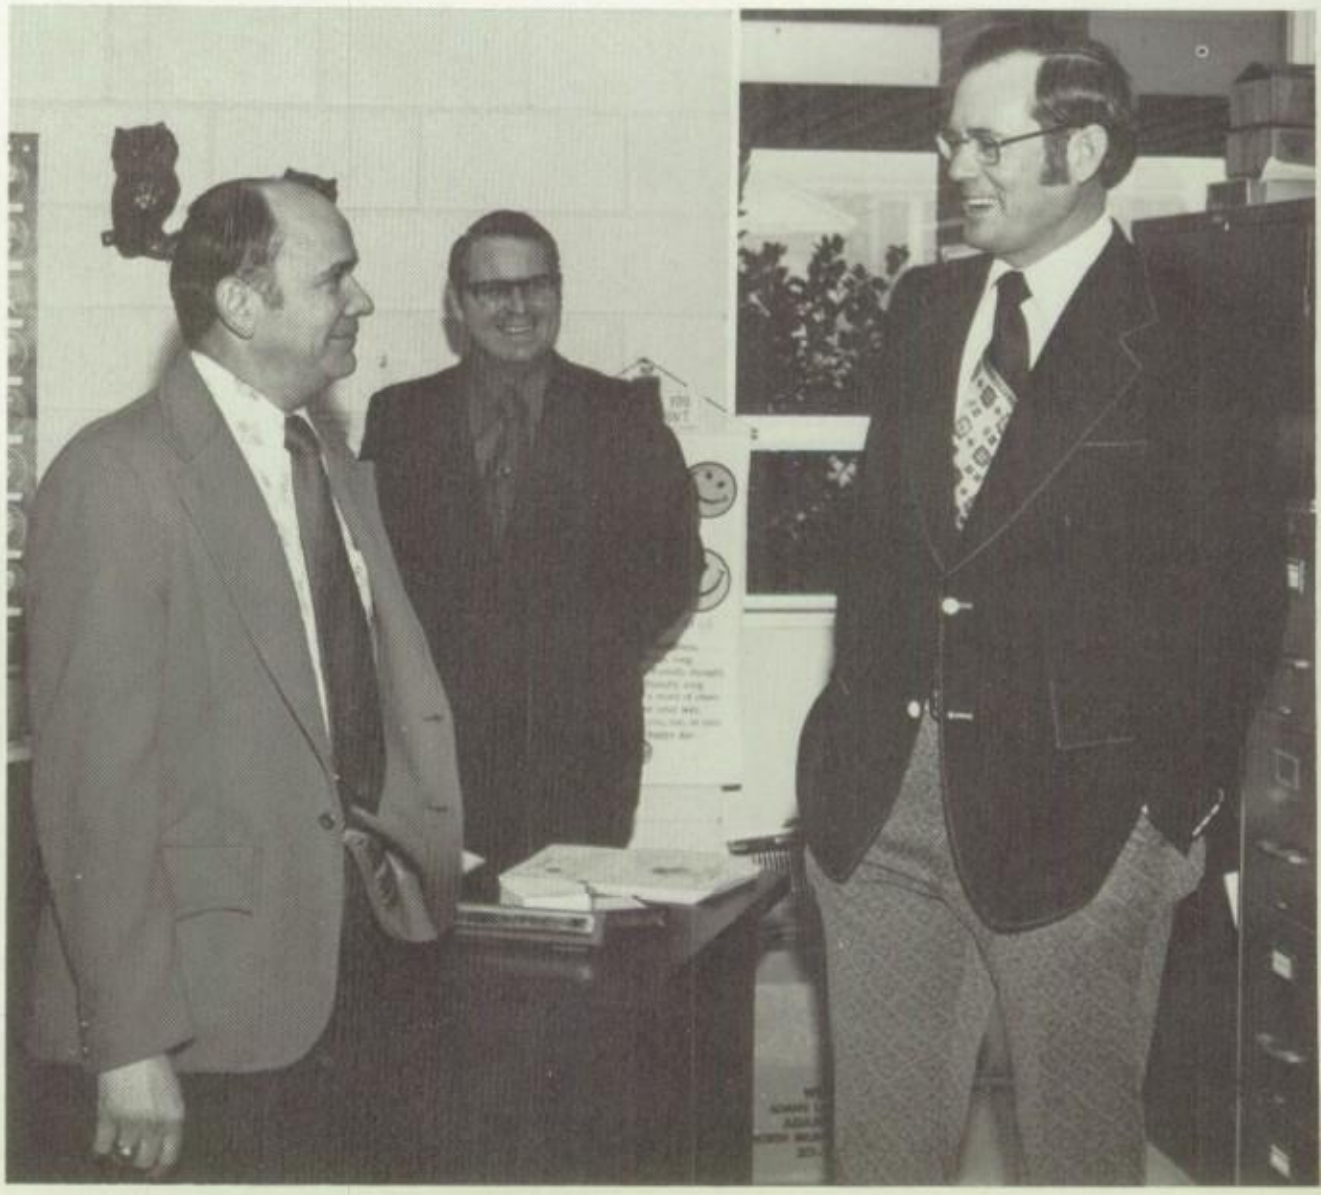
The administration has worked directly with the students. Their jobs require much time and patience, which each gives to the best of his ability.



It is encouraging to note that in spite of the shortages of the energy crisis, our community exhibits a surplus of energy in support of the various programs of the school. In behalf of the board, administration, and faculty let me express our appreciation for your continued support in these times of dwindling reserves. We feel very fortunate for the many expressions of cooperation that you as a community have voiced during this school year. We will sincerely attempt to do the job that is worthy of your support.

Wesley Barrow

DR. WESLEY BARROW
Superintendent



Mr. Ed Huey, State Department of Education Inspector, confers with superintendent and principal while visiting the Elgin Schools.

Look carefully at our self-confidence, enthusiasm, sense of humor, personal appearance, fairness, promptness, manners, attitude, understanding, and values. It will help each of us to be a better person.

Huelan Bracken

MR. HUELAN BRACKEN
Grade School Principal

When any school system is successful in the field of education, the school system must have the support of the faculty, the student body, and patrons.

The Elgin School system is a tremendous success because of the consideration that is shown to the Administration by the faculty, the student body, and patrons. I feel that the accomplishments are many by our school because of the desire for quality education.

Earnest Bradshaw

MR. EARNEST BRADSHAW

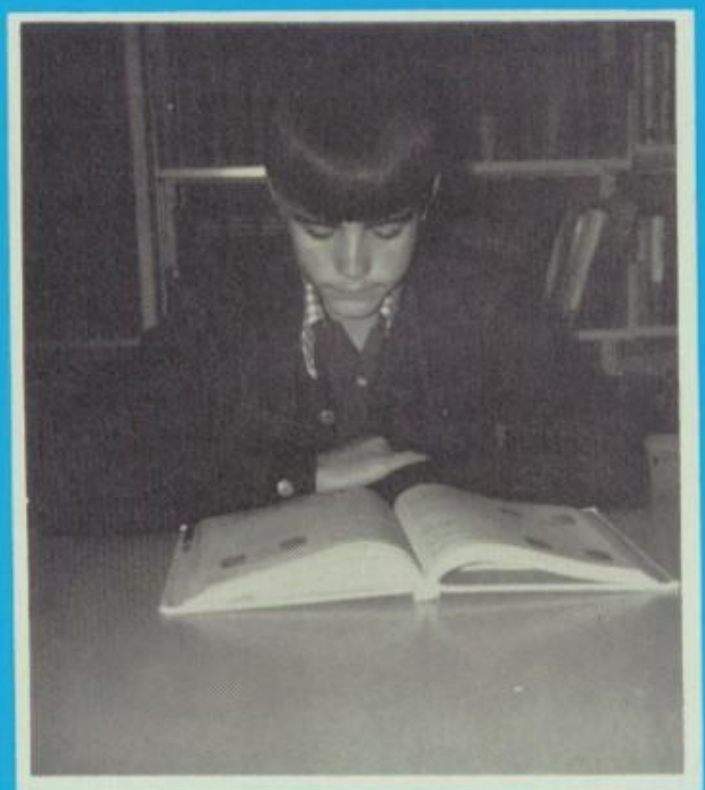
MOMENTS

OF LEARNING



Learning . . . the fundamental purpose at Elgin High. It is the ability to seek truth, to encompass daily activities, and to strive for a better world in which to live.

Learning . . . the knowledge we attain today, and base our lives upon tomorrow.

We, the seniors of 1974, would like to take this opportunity to thank the many people who helped make this year unforgettable.

We would like to thank the community for their loyal support during the past year. They have traveled over the state to cheer for the local teams, and have always been willing to help out whenever we had fund-raising activities.

To the faculty we say "thank you" for your time and patience, not only in the field of study, but also for the extracurricular activities in which so many of you helped us.

To the many friends we have at Elgin, we say "thanks" for the good times and friendship each of you have shown. Our senior year would not have been complete if all of you had not been a part of it.

Lastly, we would like to express our deepest thanks to our parents, the most important figures in our obtaining an education. For twelve long years they have shown us the love, encouragement, and guidance that only a parent can show. Their unselfish attitude throughout our school years have put us where we are today. They have given much, and received little. We hope that we portray some of the finer qualities our parents have shown us during our school years.

Seniors . . . We reached higher than ever to accomplish our goals. United as one, we stood through the despair of failure, the joy of achievement, and the satisfaction of a job well done.

From the mirrors of our minds the memories of yesterday are reflected in our thoughts. And because of you --our community, our faculty, our friends, and our parents--these memories were made possible.

Super Steve Mansel scored 31 points and hauled down 20 rebounds in Elgin's boys romp. But Mansel was not the only factor deciding the outcome of the game. Junior sharpshooter Brad Oliver ripped the nets for 21 points, playmaker John Tsotigh hit 13 points and contributed nine assists, and sophomore reserve Keith McDonald delighted the crowd with his pinpoint passing and defense.

Jumping Joe Bill Runyon led Cache with 22 points but the lanky junior was no match for Elgin's inside strength. Center Bill Blackburn, for

CHILDREN LEARN WHAT THEY LIVE

If a child lives with criticism, He learns to condemn.

If a child lives with hostility. He learns to fight.

If a child lives with ridicule. He learns to be shy.

If a child lives with shame. He learns to feel guilty.

If a child lives with tolerance. He learns to be patient.

If a child lives with encouragement. He learns confidence.

If a child lives with praise. He learns to appreciate.

If a child lives with fairness. He learns justice.

If a child lives with security. He learns to have faith.

If a child lives with approval. He learns to like himself.

If a child lives with acceptance and friendship.
He learns to find love in the world.

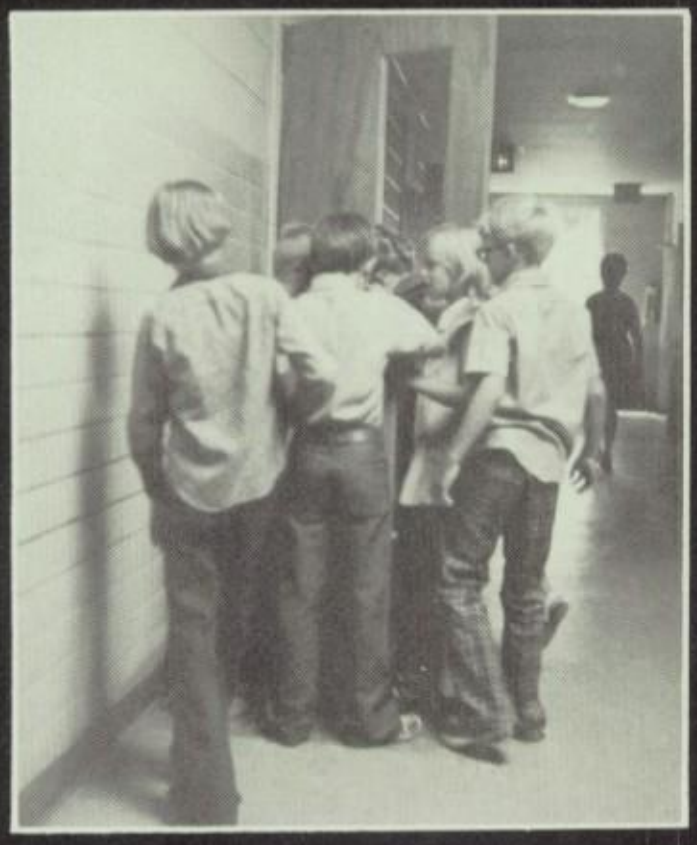
MOMENTS

OF GROWING



Growing . . . young lives bursting with energy. Characters are molded and influenced by numerous people each day. Each moment's activities add to a collection of memories.

Growing...this is the beginning step: Foundations are laid, not only to face higher education, but to face life.

Mrs. Virginia Virgil works in the special learning center. Here students come in small groups to receive individual instruction. After working in the center, the students return to their classrooms for the remainder of the day.

MISS EILEEN FOSTER
Remedial Reading

Miss Foster uses many types of equipment in improving reading skills. Among these is the Craig Reader, which is devised to help students with perceptional problems. The student copies down the symbols or words that he sees on the screen. By reproducing what is on the screen, he receives valuable training in figure ground relationship and visual sequencing.

Annual Staff . . .

We wish to express thanks to the many individuals that have helped to capture events in the school life of 1973-74.

The Staff

Co-Editors

Each year brings many events and many memories for all of us. Each of us has our own impression as we glance through the year. We hope we have been able to capture the special moments in these few pages.

In "Moments to Remember" we have tried to highlight the happenings of the 1973-1974 school year. There are precious moments tucked away in every heart, and we hope you will cherish these more and more as you turn the pages.

As we look back through the memories of our minds, we hope we can see growth. We hope we have grown as individuals, developed those desired qualities, and honored God with our lives.

We are grateful for all that has been done to make this a memorable year, and hope you enjoy reminiscing with us.
